#Prettie thought

Hey pretties , can you believe we are going into Q2 already, We blinked and a good chunk of the year has gone! This year has been tough on even the most resilient of us, things changing and moving around us at a rate that has made our head spin. The state of the world has been in question and those of us with the most humanity have had to really pull together to be beacons of goodness and hope for everyone. Now we are so connected online it is really important that we don't stop being the people to shine a good light. That even from miles away we don't shy away from expressing what is right.

So many of us went into business to better our lives only to find that the ultimate connection between us all and the opportunity to help others resides in our hearts with the same furious motivation as saving ourselves and creating something we love once did.

In times of hardships it is easy to be energetically overwhelmed. To see the darkness trying to snuff out light and find that difficult to consume. It can make you want to hide a way. This is your loving reminder to be very conscious with what you consume , to remove, block and stop watching when things get too much.

Science has proven that the energy we radiate is as good as magic, make sure you can keep your vibration higher so you can focus on what you need and want for your business without being derailed.

I am sending love to you all, you are the best of the best. Please don't underestimate the power of you doing good in your corner of the universe.

All the best

I'm Alison from Wales, UK, and I have worked professionally as an astrologer and intuitive for more than 25 years. I empower women age 45+ to step into their powerful planetary aspects that only occur in our 40s and 50s! Stepping into our Age of Wisdom unlocks soul career, core message and so much more.

I have given talks, led workshops, held group programs and given astrological chart readings all over the UK and appeared in magazines and on local radio stations. But especially dear to my heart has always been sharing the information that the stars have for all of us. Nothing is fated or absolute destiny as we all have free will and decide our choices through life! Astrology gives us information about where our best choices may be.

I love cake, live music, camping and watching the seasons as they turn.

April News

Significant Dates for April

A whole new cycle of creative energy begins to unfold!

1st - New Moon in Aries

16th - Full Moon in Libra

20th - Sun moves into Taurus

30th - New Moon in Taurus

April

Springtime is underway with nature blossoming and blooming. The birds are singing and the crops are growing.

At the very end of April planet Pluto turns retrograde. This brings in a long cycle of different planets offering retrograde energies with potentials to show opportunities to expand into new directions; gather new expression of your talents; stretch your imagination and inspiration; connect with new people in different circles ...

Over the next few months the clues will gradually reveal themselves however, until then, we have the whole of the month of April to sow the seeds of new crops and ideas. And so ... have you created a new journal or dream board?

Using the Lunar cycle in April!

This month we have 2 new moons. Our Moon doesn't conform to our calendar of 365 days / twelve months in a year. Come to think of it neither does the Sun as we have to add an extra day every four years to cope with our relationship with the Sun.

With the New moon in Aries leading towards the Full moon in Libra we have a good opportunity to bring some non-conformity into our world!

Remember to cleanse your crystals at the full moon - especially citrine or tigers eye. A good use of the energy, at the next New Moon (Taurus), would be for intentions of abundance!

Extra tip for this month:

Look particularly at the areas where the new and full moons have their influence in your birth chart ...

I offer you a phrase for this month:

Create!

Using the Lunar cycle in March!

This is an introspective New Moon as it falls in the 12th sign of the zodiac. So be prepared to think outside the box or even in a different language for inspiration.

The Full Moon has an energy to bring plans down to earth by making sure everyone involved knows what is expected of them!

Extra tip for this month:

Look particularly at the areas where the new and full moons have their influence in your birth chart ...

Remember that we live on a beautiful planet in an awesome Universe and have infinite possibilities from which to choose. Take time and breathe into new energies beginning to emerge.

I offer you a phrase for this month:

All systems ready to go!
